WHY CHOOSE US

TechMedEx's Medical Billing Service Gets Doctors Paid On Time

Increased Revenue

TechMedEx's medical billing department collaborates closely with healthcare centers to ensure accurate and timely claims submission. By securing on-time reimbursements, we help healthcare facilities thrive. As trusted consultants, we drive long-term revenue growth and financial success.

Fast Claim Processing

TechMedEx Medical Billing optimizes cash flow for doctors by identifying payment delays and offering electronic claim processing solutions to ensure faster reimbursements.

OUTSOURCE MEDICAL BILLING

Managing in-house medical billing can be costly and time-consuming, requiring meticulous attention to detail. Any errors or inefficiencies in the process can lead to claim denials or rejections, ultimately increasing costs and diverting valuable time from patient care.

At TechMedEx, our expert billing team partners with physicians to streamline practice management, reduce billing errors, and optimize revenue cycle performance, helping your practice to achieve sustainable growth and financial stability.

Let's Compare In-house Medical Billing Vs. Outsourcing with TechMedEx

In-house Medical Billing	Outsourcing Medical Billing with TechMedEx
Loss in Revenue: • Annual salaries and benefits • Office supplies and maintaining other overheads.	No Revenue Loss in: • Hiring staff, Spending on billing supplies for the office.
Billing and coding require specialized knowledge. Errors or inefficiencies can result in claim denials, rejected claims, and delays in reimbursements, which can be costly.	TechMedEx has specialized expertise and certified coders who are updated on the latest codes, regulations, and payer requirements, reducing errors and claim denials.
In-house staff must stay up-to-date on ever-changing billing regulations and payer requirements.	TechMedEx ensures compliance with all applicable regulations and payer requirements, eliminating the risk of penalties or audits.
Managing billing in-house takes away from the time you and your staff could dedicate to patient care, making your practice less efficient.	By outsourcing billing, you can free up time and resources to focus on providing better patient care and expanding your practice.
